Optometric Physician Dr. Elizabeth McVey Joins Center For Sight

Englewood, FL—August 12, 2011– Center For Sight, Southwest Florida’s premier multi-physician vision care and cosmetic facial surgery practice, is pleased to announce that Dr. Elizabeth McVey, optometric physician, joined Center For Sight’s physician team. Dr. McVey sees patients in Center For Sight’s Englewood location.

“We are pleased to welcome Dr. McVey who joins Dr. Campbell Gaunt in our Englewood office,” says James Dawes, Center for Sight’s Chief Administrative Officer. “Dr. McVey provides a wide range of primary eye care to patients.”

A residency trained and board certified optometric physician who provides a wide range of primary eye care to Center For Sight patients, Dr. McVey works closely with our ophthalmology physician team in the ongoing treatment of macular degeneration, diabetic eye disease, cataracts and other ocular diseases.

Her services include vision testing, eyewear prescriptions, contact lenses and the diagnosis and treatment of eye disorders such as glaucoma. In addition, she manages pre-op testing and follow-up care for both cataract surgery and laser vision correction patients.

A graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio with a Bachelor of Science Degree, Dr. McVey went on to earn her Doctor of Optometry and Master of Science Degree at The Ohio State University College of Optometry in Columbus, Ohio. She also completed a residency in binocular vision and pediatrics at The Ohio State University College of Optometry, as well as serving as an instructor in the College of Optometry. Fluent in Spanish, Dr. McVey has donated her time to performing eye exams and dispensing glasses and eye drops in Nicaragua.

At Center For Sight, surgical procedures are performed in their state-of-the-art AAAHC accredited surgery center located in Sarasota.
